

Employee Owned in the Colorado Mountains!

Project Engineer

We are seeking a Construction Manager / Project Engineer join our team! We are an employee owned business, so you will have opportunity for additional stock-ownership benefits. We are fortunate to live and play in the Colorado Mountains, with room to grow your career. You will oversee project planning, scheduling, budgeting, and implementation on various projects for our team.

Responsibilities:

- Oversee all aspects of construction project from planning to implementation
- Allocate resources for assigned projects
- Supervise onsite personnel and communication with General Contractors
- Interface with project inspectors, contractors, architects, engineers, city and county officials, and clients
- Negotiate with estimators / customers to receive reasonable order costs
- Maintain high standards of workmanship that adhere to original plans and specifications

Qualifications:

- Previous experience or schooling in construction management or other related fields
- Familiarity with construction management software
- Strong leadership qualities
- Strong negotiation skills
- Deadline and detail-oriented

R & H MECHANICAL

"People & Products You Can Count On"

If interested, please call 970-328-2699 or email info@randhmechanical.com